

Press Release 4th March 2018

King's Lynn St Michaels Rifle & Pistol Club can confirm that they were made aware following a press enquiry on Saturday 17th February 2018 regarding alleged social media posts by a Club member.

A Disciplinary Panel Hearing was held on 4th March 2018 to considered whether there had been a breach of the Club Constitution.

The Panel after considering the evidence put before them have decided that the member did not breach the Club's Constitution and therefore have reinstated the member.

The Club believes the matter is now closed and will not be making any further comment.
